LINDA PRATT, Editor

You, teaching, studying, thinking, worrying, learning, and discovering, soar Norman High School to academic heights. You go to class six hours a day, five days a week; you bring the textbook to life; you bring the past into the present; you anticipate the future. You grow through the acquiring of knowledge.

You, coming, going, walking, running, singing, dancing, speaking, and shouting, make Norman High School buzz with excitement. You recognize your friends in the halls; you support and participate in athletic endeavors; you create a social atmosphere. You develop your personality through various activities.

You, joining, belonging, sharing, dividing, practicing, performing, presiding, discussing, and debating, turn goals into realities in Norman High School. You attend meetings; you strive to accomplish something; you bring pride into your school. You become mature through a sense of responsibility.

You, earning, winning, electing, honoring, awarding, and graduating, promote leadership in Norman High School. You maintain a high grade average; you take part in many functions; you back your school in every way you know how; you work harmoniously with your fellow students and administrators.

What is Norman High School? It is only a building. But you, you who do all of these things, make and keep this building alive.

TIGERS

TIGERS

The Norman High School building stands out distinctly atop the rolling lawns facing Main Street.

Garrison Hall, the new science building named for Mr. J. Don Garrison, is equipped with the finest laboratories to be had for high school programs.

Mr. J. Don Garrison, Superintendent of Schools.

In Dedication

Deciding a dedicatee for the 1964 TRAIL was relatively easy this year, as there was one man who stood out from all the rest in years of devoted service to Norman and its public school system.

He became principal of Norman Junior High in 1933 and principal of Norman High School in 1935. The following year, 1936, he moved up to superintendent of schools where he has worked until this year, excepting his years of military service.

He is the reason we have many new school buildings in Norman, only one of which is our science building. In 1947 he presented Norman High football players and enthusiastic crowds of spectators with the floodlights in Owen Stadium for our purposes. Each year the boys participating in football who receive the best grades have their names engraved on a trophy established by him to encourage high academic standing along side with physical fitness.

We want to express our most sincere gratitude to him for his outstanding dedication to Norman and its citizens by dedicating this TRAIL to him, although this is the third time he has received this honor. In this his year of retirement, we want to say good-by, but thanks, to our friend and builder of both structure and character, Mr. J. Don Garrison.

ACADEMICS

Physics seems to be fun to John Ashmore, Jacky Medcalf, Mr. Hershel Morris, Jim Rummage, and Paul Kelly.

Attending a recent meeting of the Board of Education were Mr. Jack Luttrell, Attorney; Mr. Lester M. Reed, Assistant Superintendent; Mr. J. Don Garrison, Superintendent; Mrs.

S. B. Spradlin, Clerk; Dr. John N. Miles, President; and Mr. Herbert Kuhlman, Mr. O. T. McCall, Mr. Guy Brown and Mr. A. L. Mason, members.

Dynamic Leader

The students and residents of Norman are thankful for the Board of Education that represents the Norman school system.

The Board meets the first Monday of each month with the Superintendent of schools, Mr. J. Don Garrison. The Board is composed of business and professional men who give their time to see that Norman has the finest facilities for all schools.

Mr. Lester M. Reed will assume responsibilities of Superintendent upon the retirement of Mr. Garrison next year.

Besides teachers, the administration of NHS includes our principal, vice-principal, counselors, office staff, and custodians.

The counselors help students plan a study program which is beneficial to them and also furnish information about college scholarships available to NHS students.

The office staff checks on absentees and does all clerical work necessary to keep a school as large as NHS operating efficiently.

When one of our custodians is absent, we quickly realize the important part these devoted workers play in keeping NHS beautiful.

Mr. B. Roy Daniel has led Norman High School through another victorious year.

Mr. Ansel Young, vice-principal, has done a great job in assisting Dr. Daniel this year.

One studies the works of literary masters as a part of his English course in order to learn to appreciate the beauty of the world around him, create a sympathetic understanding of people of all parts of the world, and better understand himself. American literature is studied in the eleventh grade, and English literature in the twelfth grade. Composition and grammar are taught at all grade levels in order that students may use correct English, learn to develop ideas and draw conclusions, acquire a more extensive vocabulary, and improve listening and conversational habits.

Past Meets Present in Social Studies

The main purpose of a history class is to help students of NHS gain a deeper knowledge of the social, political, cultural, and economic institutions of mankind, so that they will develop into dependable citizens and be of greater service to the community.

No longer is a history class composed of boring facts about half-forgotten dates and battles. Today, this class teaches the students how to deal with future problems by studying the results of decisions made about problems similar to those with which we will be faced.

We also study the way the United States government is handled, and receive a greater understanding of our federal, state, and local governments.

Science, The Tool Of Understanding

Science and math are a meaningful part of each student's high school curriculum.

This year the science and math departments moved to Garrison Hall, the new expansion of NHS. Biology, physics, and chemistry classes have well-equipped laboratories with individual microscopes for every table. These labs enable students to become better acquainted with science, the tool of understanding.

Art Takes Many Forms

To be an artist, one does not need to be able to paint. Art is anything one can do by himself and feel that something has been accomplished.

In art and mechanical drawing a person simply copies what the eye sees.

In shop, a person is given a chance to work with wood and make many beautiful and useful things for the home. This is indeed an art too.

"Remember, 'the door' is feminine, not masculine," explains Mrs. Vivian Bell.

Language, Key To The Future

With the addition of three new language laboratories, three new teachers, and a course in German, the NHS language department has taken on a new look. The new labs develop a strong proficiency in speaking the language, and enable the teacher to discover the individual student's difficulties. This year's language students have been provided with earphones to be used at the desks instead of the booths which were used last year, and which occupied so much space.

Vocational Courses Prepare Students

Of the courses offered at NHS, Vocational courses prepare the students for the outside world of business and financial management. They help students to learn to cooperate with others, be dependable in leadership and in service. Through these courses, students are trained to be desirable business associates, as well as successful businessmen.

During a tense moment, Coach Gene Corrotto anxiously awaits the outcome of an NHS goal attempt.

Cues, Notes, Exercise Add to Life

Adding spice to the curriculum are such courses as Band, Physical Education, Speech, and Chorus. Among other activities, the Chorus sings for many organizations in the Norman area. The Speech classes make use of the auditorium regularly, practicing volume speaking. Our Band brings home many honors from the contests they attend. Nearly every day one can hear the grunts and groans of the students in the Physical Education Department, while they are working toward the goal of complete physical fitness.

Faithful Staff Maintain School's Services

"That Mr. Young knows I can't take a quarter and a five cent stamp for that lunch," thinks Mrs. Lou O'Pry, cashier, as Mrs. Lucille Willard works on.

"Honest, Mr. Daniel, we weren't sweeping the dirt under the waste basket. We're just . . ." Thinking a way out of this predicament are custodians, O. D. Flud, Alvis Jones, and Charles Hettinger.

Important to the proper functioning of Norman High are the cafeteria workers and the custodians, two groups dedicated to serving NHS.

The great job of feeding many hungry students each day is efficiently met by capable women, highly trained for this purpose.

Responsible for waxing and sweeping the halls, cleaning rooms, and heating the school are the custodians. This demanding job when done well is most appreciated and pleasantly accepted by the faculty and students of our fine school.

The cafeteria workers were, First row: Georgia Rumfelt, Chloris Moody, Virginia Cox, Lela Green, and Dane Dragoo. Second row: Lydia Webb, Alma Taylor, Lilian

Ray, Lena Randolph, Pauline Vass, and cashiers Lucille Willard, and Lou O'Pry.

SCHOOL LIFE

Students hurriedly leave the school at 3:30 and find their various ways home.

"Oooo! Does it bite?" Little Scott Powell views a poisonous spider under a microscope in one of the new science laboratories during the open house for the public. Mr. James Park looks on as John Powell and his family wait their turn.

"Oh Roy, Oh Roy, is zat yo' hoss?" Sandra Busch and Ronnie Morris "rock it out" at the Howdy Hop to one of the popular songs of '64.

The student center buzzed with excitement during enrollment the last three days of August.

BEGINS

School had started! The first weeks of school were devoted almost entirely to adjustment to a new building and new faces.

Every Senior began the year with a feeling of owning the school, every Junior with a feeling of belonging and every Sophomore with a feeling of bewilderment.

The first thing confronting the students was enrollment. To many it was a time of fun, but also to many it was a time for serious thinking.

Next came the Howdy Hop, a time of dancing and getting to know everyone.

On October 21, students served as guides for their parents at Norman High's Open House.

Vicki Raymond, Linda Dumas, Mary Martha Miles, and Veronia Farabee look apprehensively at their schedules for the 1963-64 school year.

"Step it up, you guys, only twenty-three more miles to go!" bellows Jonathan Thayer, drum major, as the band leads the victory march toward Owen Stadium for our triumph over Nathan Hale High School.

Tiger Spirit Reigns

"Tigers Triumph" is a good way to sum up the 1963-64 football season. Not always were we victorious, but NHS spirits soared just the same. The Gingersnaps, band, student body, and administration went all the way to support our big team this year. Among others, one event to remember was a snake dance down Main Street followed by a great bonfire in the school parking lot. A traditional victory march was held before our victory over Nathan Hale High School. The pep assemblies brought skits, laughter, yells, and encouraging speeches by the coaches and captains. Our award-winning band performed before games and during half-time shows. It was a great season and one to remember.

"Who's da bum?" That's Randy Glasscock alias Kathy Kuhlman at one of our "rip roaring" pep assemblies in the gym.

Tiger spirit is at its peak as Gary Williams, Ken Danner, and Quentin Remy raise the victory flag to the enthusiastic chants of the student body after the NHS victory over the Putnam City Pirates.

Gary Williams uses his destructive talents as he lights the bonfire where the Stillwater Pioneers were burned in effigy in the school parking lot. Quentin Remy gives his support with a gas can.

"Go Ye Tigers!" The tri-captains, Gary Williams, Quentin Remy, and Ken Danner, lead Johnny Thompson, Lain Adkins, Larry Berglan, Carl Smith, Tom Kahan, and the rest of the squad onto the field for the Capitol Hill game as the pep club cheers them on.

"Now, be in by 8:30." Mother (Susan Wilson) warns Junior (Tony Zule) in the Senior Class Play, "Harvey."

James Madden and Carol LeBlanc, top salesmen for "Harvey," try out their persuasive skills on an innocent bystander.

"Here we go 'round the Mulberry Bush!" sing Larry Cook and Sally Pitt at the Christmas Dance.

Part Of This

Mrs. Mabel Ritzman makes up Gan Matthews Indian style for his role as Pappy Yokum in "Li'l Abner," while Ginie Hohenberger awaits her turn.

"Tigers on to victory! Go! Go!" chant the chorus line, Mrs. Cleo Mosley, Mrs. Linda Driskill, Mrs. DaJuana Jones, Miss Hope Wood, Mrs. Amalia Fast, Mrs. Virginia Hughes, and Mrs. Karen McGuckin.

"I Wanna Hold Your Hand!" sings Jerri Jo Collins as Mrs. Lois Brandt and Betty Whitlock inspect Mr. Bones, and Earl Roley works diligently.

"But Mr. Upchurch, that's not Donald Duck, that's Mickey Mouse," corrects Carlos Driescher as Mr. Stanley Upchurch and his other students enjoy the cartoon.

Cheryl Craig screams in excitement as she learns that she has been named All School Queen for 1963-64, while Paula Powers and Guyanne Calame join in her enthusiasm.

Maria Kay Gill, Cheryl Gates, Linda Pratt, Cheryl Craig, Guyanne Calame, and Judy Miller display their marvelous talents in the Senior Talent Assembly.

Terrific Tiger Talent

The talent at Norman High School was revealed in the Senior Talent Assembly of 1963-64. Promising talent also showed up in such places as the geometry and biology classes, and the teachers' pep assembly. From present indications, Norman High School students and teachers will go far in the field of talent.

Cherry Kay Griffith arrives in her Dior original as Becky Berry looks on with awe.

"Look! Up on the stage! It's a bird, it's a plane! No! It's Big Daddy Grease and the Three Slicks!" Jim Lack, Larry Berglan, and James Strickland sing in the Senior Talent Assembly.

"I still don't think 'Return of The Zombies' is a very good theme for the Prom," says Laura Hill to Duane Draper and Ann Finney as James Elder expresses his views to an unseen party.

The beautiful decorations of last year's Prom, "Adventures in Paradise," helped to make it a great success.

"There goes Mr. Young. Now I can give the ladder a little push!" thinks Roy Harkey as Vic Miller and Don Allen decorate the student center for a dance.

'63-'64 Draws

The 1963-64 school year has had many joyous moments. The Senior Class Play, Harvey, and the All-School Musical, Li'l Abner, were enacted with great skill and enthusiasm. The All-Sports Queen and All-School Queen coronations were beautiful and thrilling moments of the year. The Tigers soared to great heights in basketball, wrestling, and the other sports, winning the first annual Boomer Conference sportsmanship trophy.

"Jumping Jehoshaphats! Did you hear what he said?" asks Ann Pilling of Steve Welty, as Nancy Herrick, Chad Rockett, and Bill Reese show a good deal of interest in Gary Winters' remark.

To A Close

The Junior Class presented their Prom, "Camelot," in a bright array of splendor. After the Prom came the end, Graduation. This has been a grand year at NHS and one you as Seniors will cherish as your last, you as Juniors as your breather between two wonderful years, and you as Sophomores as the beginning of your life in the home of the Tigers.

A bird's-eye view of a can of sardines? No, it's our flying photographer's view of the bleachers during an assembly.

James Strickland measures Lynda Hill's head for cap size as they prepare for the biggest event of the year, Graduation.

Royalty Reigns In NHS

Amid excitement and suspense the royalty of Norman High School was selected. With tears and happiness they became our queens. Being a queen is a once-in-a-lifetime thrill which can come to only a chosen few. The girls thus honored most closely fulfill the dream of an ideal girl. Although they may differ considerably, they each possess the qualities of high character, outstanding ability, and true school spirit. More than this, they have a certain charm and grace which make each stand out as a true queen.

From the theme "Mardi Gras," of the all school coronation, to the enchanting theme "Twilight Time," of the FFA coronation, you became a part of the honors of your school. Representing the entire student body as All-School Queen was Cheryl Craig. Jane Meyer was selected by the athletes from all the sports to be All-Sports Queen. FFA was well represented by Becky Berry. Farrie Young was elected queen by the Distributive Education Club.

The queens for 1964 were Jane Meyer, All-Sports Queen; Cheryl Craig, All-School Queen; Farrie Young, Distributive Education Queen; and Becky Berry, Future Farmers of America Queen.

ORGANIZATIONS

Highlighting an all-school assembly was the Norman High School Band conducted by James A. Middleton.

Checking pages and planning were the basic jobs of Sponsor Richard B. Taylor and Editor Linda Pratt, who seem to have their work piling up on them.

"It wasn't enough that we sold a hundred and some-odd ads. Now we have to cut them up and paste them in the dummy," groan Co-Business Managers Carol Henderson and Judy Coles.

"No, Donnie, I didn't call you a 'dummy!' The dummy is the rough draft of the TRAIL," Sara Culp, Sports Editor, explains to Don Haral.

TRAIL Expands

Topping the agenda for the 1964 TRAIL staff was work, work, work. Their goal was to publish the best TRAIL that ever has been or ever will be distributed in Norman High School.

The best possible quality paper was used this year, off-set printing replaced letterpress, and the book was expanded to one hundred and seventy-six pages. With the addition of a dark room in the new science building, the photographers not only took the pictures, but also developed and printed them.

Pages were drawn up, pictures taken, copy written, ads sold, theme and cover design chosen, and editing and proof-reading completed. All this and much more were the duties of the twenty-one hard-working people who created this book for you.

"Now don't forget, the picture must be in proportion to the page. Or is it the page must be in proportion to the picture?" Organizations Editor Ann Finney, center, teaches the art of cropping to Kay Snodgrass, Linda Kinnebrew, and Pam Oviatt.

"Are you a 1-2-3 girl?" asks Richard Booker, photographer.

"Which do you like best, Mary, full length faces or full length dresses?" Maria Kay Gill, Honors Editor, uses cut outs to plan her queen pages with Mary Male's helpful assistance.

"Just tell me one more time. Do we or don't we index teachers?" Barbara Wender wants to know. Jan Herron, Classes Editor, instructs Barbara and Melissa Martin in filing.

"I don't think we have quite enough pictures," Cathy Holman tells Jayne Price, School Life Editor, who is trying to draw up her pages.

"Is this Tootsie Bell or Hazel Baby?" asks Becky Pierce of Academics Editor Judy Miller while planning their panels.

Presiding over a Spanish Club meeting is President Karen Green.

Spanish Club Studies

Spanish club officers were Joy Smotherman, Secretary; Karen Green, President; Duane Draper, Vice-President; and James Elder, Treasurer.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert O. Sumter, the Spanish Club has tried to acquaint its members with Spanish culture. At the beginning of the year, Mrs. Beavers from Puerto Rico showed slides from her native land. In February the club elected Gloria Kerby Spanish-American Fiesta Representative. She represented Norman High at the Spanish Convention on April second and third. With Mr. Sumter's musical tapes the members practiced Spanish dances. At the end of the year, Bill Bavinger showed interesting slides of his trip with his family through Mexico.

Demonstrating the Spanish Twist are Jane Lockett and Bill Bavinger.

Admiring piñatas from Spain are Dick Talley, Stephanie Warren, and Cathy Busch.

Latin American Ways

La Parisienne

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Virginia Bell, the French Club was started in 1958. This year's membership hit an all time high of 94. Nasr Boukadoum, an O.U. student from Algeria, spoke at a dinner attended by 73 members. A Bake Sale for the public netted over $90. The money raised will be added to a fund for either supporting a foreign orphan or a foreign exchange student.

Near Christmas time, members caroled in French, and had a party afterwards. In February, Judy Talley, a former NHS student, spoke about her year at Sorbonne. The grand finale of the year was the Spring Picnic.

At the close of the year, a French dictionary was given to the outstanding graduating student of French.

Activity Is The Key

Mrs. Lucille White proudly accepts a corsage from the cast of "Li'l Abner" on the closing night.

Since 1957, Mrs. Lucille White has directed the Chorus Department of Norman High School. It consists of the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, the Mixed Chorus, and four ensembles.

To begin the year, selected members of Chorus classes sang at the annual OEA Workshop. The best results of all previous years were achieved by the annual Candy Sale. In November, the NHS Chorus, together with the choruses of West and Central Junior High Schools, presented a joint concert. Delegates

Under the fine leadership of Mr. Bob Williams, sponsor, and Larry Harral, president, the Student Council carried out many school and community projects.

Jane Meyer and Cindy Bowlby share a private joke while upperclassmen Marilyn Coates and Dana Davis ignore them.

The Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Bob Williams, supervised many projects this year. Beginning the year with enrollment, the members helped both students and teachers. Several dances filled an exciting year. Among these were the Howdy Hop, Christmas Dance, Valentine's Dance, and the dance ending the Now or Never Week.

This important organization also charts all new organizations, sponsors school elections, works on civic projects, and handles student directories and the Parliamentary Procedure course. Willing Workers aid the Council without having membership. The Intramural Volley Ball Tournament concluded the year.

Completing an outstanding year for all members was the Annual Student Council Banquet held in May. At this time, the new officers for the coming year were announced. The accomplishments and goals of the Student Council of 1963-64 will long be remembered.

Math Can Be Fun

Sponsored by Mrs. Kay Maddox, the Math Club was newly formed this year. They met once a month, and members learned about oddities of mathematics, like the Moebius strip. They tried to avoid textbook materials, and get the fun out of math. During the second semester, various mathematicians spoke to the club.

Speech Classes Win High Honors

Speech students, under the instruction of Mrs. Mabel Ritzman, have studied the fundamentals of speech, effective discussion, debate, radio, parliamentary procedure, and dramatic interpretation. In addition, they have presented the plays Harvey, starring Gan Matthews, and Mrs. McThing, starring Peggy Johnson and James Elder. Hard work was put into the All-School Musical, Li'l Abner, presented jointly by the Speech and Chorus Departments.

High honors were won by students at the district speech contests at OBU, OSU, Chickasha, and Lawton. By winning first places at these contests, seven students qualified for state competition. Mary Jane Gatchel placed first in the Voice of Democracy contest, and Linda Dumas won a trip to the U.N. for her speech about that organization. Certainly, these students have been a talented group.

First place winners qualifying for state contest were: Gan Matthews and Judie Childress, duet acting; Milke Elder, standard oratory; Duane Draper, radio; Linda Dumas, humorous duet acting; and James Elder, humorous duet acting and original oratory. Mary Jane Gatchel, center, won the Voice of Democracy Contest.

"I has spoken!" yells Mammy Yokum (Paula Powers) in Li'l Abner. Other members of the cast in the foreground are Gary Corrotto, Li'l Abner; Duane Draper, Earthquake McGoon; Laura Williams, Daisy Mac; and Marvin Gifford, Marryin' Sam.

Tours Promote FJA Interest

Mark Miller, Treasurer, bothers other FJA officers Nancy Herrick, Secretary; David Meyer, Vice-President; and Anne Pilling, President; who are "trying" to type.

Founded by Mrs. D. L. Barnes in 1958, the Belknap Future Journalist Club of 1963-64, sponsored by Mrs. Nellie Childs, had twenty-five members. Among their many activities the members visited the Norman Transcript and Daily Oklahoman plants, went to the fall and spring Oklahoma Interscholastic Press Association meetings, and heard talks on newspaper work by Mr. J. F. Paschal, secretary of OIPA, and Mr. Dennis Whittlesey, editor of the Oklahoma Daily, first semester. A dinner was planned by the club for other journalism departments across the state. Membership is open to Trail and journalism students.

Dennis Whittlesey, editor of Oklahoma Daily, explains newspaper work to Walter Shaw, David Meyer, Meridee Bailey, and Kay Snodgrass.

"Hold the papers steady, Anne, I've had a rough day," Mike Harmon begs Anne Pilling while Mrs. Nellie Childs, Walter Shaw, and Ed Bucher sort advertisements.

Tales Staff Everywhere!

Gathering news, planning pages and headlines, proofreading and selling advertisements are only small parts of the work which the seven editors, reporters, and Mrs. Nellie Childs, Tiger Tales sponsor, perform. During the year twelve issues of the paper are printed including special Christmas and senior issues. To promote sales the Tales staff did a take-off on the Beverly Hillbillies in their special assembly. The staff members have shown the ability and training to fulfill the jobs required. This year their work has proved exceptional.

"Keep your eye on 'em, Grannie, them city folks are tricky," Ed Bucher and Mike Harmon warn Mary Jane Gatchel as they stand guard at the Tiger Tales assembly.

FHA Important To Community

Installation of officers began the 1963-64 year for the Future Homemakers, under the sponsorship of Miss Hope Wood. Mrs. Estelle Power of Powers Young Fashions discussed consumer buying and set the theme of "Winter Fashion" in a style show. Money-making projects were the selling of cookbooks and serving at a Locket Hotel dinner. "Youth Can Do," "Getting Acquainted With People From Other Lands," and "Remember the Aging," were the central goals of FHA this year. Each holiday the members made special items for the people in rest homes, bringing into focus the ideals of the club.

Paint Daubers Decorate Home

Beginning a whirlwind of activities, the Paint Daubers, led by President Susan Pace and Sponsor Mrs. Shirley Calkins, held its organizational party in September. The club was soon busy preparing advertisements and props for the All-School Musical, Li'l Abner. Simultaneously, the members made posters for the Norman Nurses' Registration Tea and also made Christmas decorations for the Tate Nursing Home.

In February, the art club visited an OU art exhibit and prepared their own paintings for the Young Talent Show. In March, with the French club, the Paint Daubers heard an interesting lecture on French Art by Mr. Sam Olkinetsky, director of the O.U. Art Museum. Preparation for the Edmond contest and the Norman High School Art Exhibit kept the club busy during April. After a rewarding year of service, the club went on a relaxing sketching trip, and visited an out-of-town exhibit.

Preparing to dye their batik are Donna Kruis and Janice Tadlock while Steve Nelson, Karen Green, Lorna Guinn, James Strickland, Robin Tapken, Tom Swain and Carol Dressel look on.

Examining their sculpture around the table are artists Cherry Kay Griffith, Barbara Sellers, Geraldine Huffman, Lorrie Pierson, Nona Gordon, Bob Dillard, Kathy Allen, Neil Hollander, Linda Gray and Randy Waers.

Artists Learn Techniques

Instructed by Mrs. Shirley Calkins, art students have achieved an appreciation for, and realization of, the art in the world today. The first semester was devoted to design and color, drawing and perspective, and then painting techniques.

For the second semester, classes were divided into sculpture of all media; wallhangings, batiks, and caustics; paintings of all media; painting processes; and posters and commercial layout.

All students profited greatly from this fully productive course.

Around the table working with clay are art class members Liz Blair, Brenda Traeder, Rob Amspacher, Art DiVecchio, Janice Webster, Nick Caddell, Tommi Collins, Linda Felton, Joan Wilcox, Karen Mauldin, Barbara Wender and Jane Meyer.

Elizabeth Bell, President, and Mrs. Jean Orth, Sponsor, discuss upcoming projects.

Medical Health Careers Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Jean Orth, was formerly the Future Nurses of America, but the name and goals were changed in order that more students interested in all phases of medicine could be aided and informed. Many interesting speakers have appeared before the group bringing information on a variety of medical health careers available to young people. Among these were Dr. Bob Mayfield and Dick Luttrell, administrator at Norman Municipal Hospital. Projects filling this year have been: making stuffed animals for the children at Central State Hospital, helping the Heart Fund drive, caroling for the occupants of rest homes, and visiting the Cerebral Palsy Center. Also a field trip was taken to Carey, medical division of the Federal Aviation Agency in Oklahoma City, and St. Anthony's Hospital. Concluding a busy year was the State Rally held at John Marshall High School in April.

Band Arouses Tiger Spirit

Seventeen stage band members gave an excellent performance at the annual Norman High School Band Concert.

Mr. James A. Middleton directs the band during first hour.

Participating in many events throughout the year, the Norman High School Band, under the direction of Mr. James A. Middleton, and Mr. Harry Haines, marching director, finished an active schedule. Enthusiasm was the key word for members playing in school pep assemblies, games, and concerts. Sixteen band students attended the All-State Band and All-State Orchestra. Among the contests in which the Band competed were: State Marching Contest at Chickasha, Band Day Parade at the University of Oklahoma, concert contests at Central State College, and the Tri-State Festival. An annual program was given for the school in January. Each year two outstanding senior band members and one other outstanding band student are chosen. A great amount of work and pleasure finished this memorable year for the NHS Band.

Our industrious cheerleaders, Carol McDade, Kathi Straw, Mary Alice Eurton, Diane Mead, Sara Culp and Lynda Hill, have spiritedly led the school body during the '63-'64 sports season. Their hard summer and after-school practices earned them a first place at Summer Clinic, and an excellent rating at Winter Clinic. Certainly these girls are one of the best groups of cheerleaders Norman High School has ever had.

Vicki Pence and Cherry Kay Griffith, alternate cheerleaders, promoted enthusiasm during the football and basketball games, and the wrestling matches.

To become an NHS cheerleader is not an easy task. All candidates make written applications to the sponsors, who review their grades and Gingersnap attendance. Then the candidates must pass a written exam on all major sports. A panel of judges rates their individual and group cheerleading and pick the finalists. From these finalists, the Gingersnaps judge and elect their cheerleaders for the coming year.

Susan, you're such a talented person and such a great asset to our class. Hope you have a blast in Dallas this summer and I'll look you up when I'm down here. You're a very fine person and I'm hoping we got to go to school together these past years. Love & luck, Carol

Cheering Gingersnap

Planning the annual Norman High open house are Principal B. Roy Daniel, Gingersnap President Brenda Traeder, and Vice-President Laura Hallam.

Founded in 1925, the Gingersnaps have become one of the most important organizations at Norman High School. Its purpose is to promote spirit and sportsmanship for Tiger football, basketball and wrestling teams. The Gingersnaps, or Pep Club, have accomplished this by attending all home events. The organization has provided stirring pep assemblies, tags and banners; and has taken buses to out-of-town games to encourage traveling Tiger teams.

In addition to supporting interscholastic sports events, the Gingersnaps have performed many service projects. They sponsored the tea for parents at the annual fall open house. The coronation of the beautiful All-Sports Queen

The Gingersnaps again participated in the collection for the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation. At the end of school, as a special privilege, all Gingersnaps in good standing voted for their cheerleaders for the following year.

The leadership of Pep Club President Brenda Traeder, Sponsors Miss Florence Pevehouse and Mrs. Sue Kendall, and new sponsors Miss Hope Wood and Mrs. Karen McGuckin was greatly appreciated by all the members and by the entire school.

"N" Club Serves NHS

All lettermen who are able to withstand the strenuous initiation are eligible for membership in the Norman High "N" Club. This year, the "N" Club has been an extremely active organization. During the summer, the club held a car wash and a bake sale. The colorful orange and black trash cans around the buildings were painted by this organization. In October the "N" Club sponsored the exciting bonfire for the Stillwater game. The annual Christmas tree decorating was performed by the "N" Club members. In addition to selling the Tiger decals for cars, the lettermen also sold basketball programs at the home games.

But, naturally, the organization is not all hard work. The members elected and crowned their beautiful All-Sports Queen, Jane Meyer, and sponsored a dance for the student body. The guidance of sponsors, Coach Wray Littlejohn and Coach Bert Corr, and the leadership exhibited by President Jim Wells has been highly productive in service to Norman High School.

Mr. Herb Mackey has sponsored the Norman FFA Chapter since 1948. Each boy uses the experience he receives by giving community service and working in the Farm Shop on his project.

If they wish, the boys can enter their projects in the County Fair and the Oklahoma State Fair. Each boy must enter the local livestock show in March.

Some activities for this year were a three-day camping trip, a visit to Oklahoma City Stockyards and Wilson's Meat Packing Plant, election of the FFA Queen Becky Berry, the Candy Sale for the Local Livestock Show, and the Spring Banquet.

FTA Holds Convention

Acquainting aspiring students with the requirements, benefits, and responsibilities of a teacher in today's world was the goal of the Future Teachers of America. This year, led by president Jon Thayer and sponsor Mrs. Mary Gatchel, the Garrison Chapter boasted fifty-five members.

In October, Norman High was the host school for the annual FTA Fall Leadership Convention. All members participated in this endeavor. In November, the presidents of the Oklahoma Education Association and the Classroom Teachers Association spoke to the group about their respective organizations. To gain practical experience in teaching and to aid Norman High pupils needing help in their studies, the club set up a Students' Assistance Program.

Various speakers in the spring included Dr. Lloyd Williams, suggesting teachers' role in the world today; Miss Sylvia Pittman, outlining teachers' certificate requirements; and Mrs. Virginia Bell and Mrs. Amalia Fast, discussing European education.

To gain new pointers in leadership, the '64 officers, officers-elect, and interested members attended the weekend Spring Convention at OSU.

Celebrating a year of hard work, the FTA members held their annual May party.

Jonathan Thayer, President, Ann Finney, Secretary; Pam Whitten, Treasurer; Mary Ann Reed, Vice-President; and Jennifer Ragsdale, Historian; are installed as '63-'64 FTA officers.

Mrs. Mary Gatchel, sponsor, successfully guided the Future Teachers of America.

Preparing the welcome banner for students attending the FTA Fall Leadership Convention are Garrison Chapter members Sandy Yarbrough, Marilyn McCarley, Jennifer Ragsdale, Betsy Siegel and Mrs. Mary Gatchel.

Registering FTA members at the FTA Leadership Convention held at Norman High are Norman members, Vera Beth Phillips and Pruda Shank.

Presenting his ideas on the role of a teacher in today's world is Dr. Lloyd Williams of the University of Oklahoma.

SPORTS

Norman High School pole vaulter Don Allen is up and over to lead the Tiger track team to victory.

Tigers Work Hard While

Faced from the beginning of the season with the realization that they could not go to State because of probationary actions, the Norman football team played every game with the determination and skill that is the mark of a Tiger.

In our memories of the 1963-64 football season certain high and low points stand out. We will never forget our near victory over top ranked Lawton. They came from behind in the last minutes and beat us 13-8. The week after our shocking upset at Ardmore, we rose above expectations and trounced state-final bound Tulsa Hale, 34-6, in our last game of the season. Having more than our share of injuries throughout the season, we ended up with a 5-4-1 record.

Four Norman Tigers were named to the Boomer Conference All Star first team. Quentin Remy, halfback, and Randy Glasscock, guard, were named to the offensive team and Gordon Will, linebacker, and Bud McDaniel, tackle, were named to the defensive team. Fourteen other Tigers were given honorable mention.

Winning Five Games

tice preparing for the season. Leading the Tigers are Quentin Remy, Ken Danner, Gordon Will and Larry Berglan.

Tigers Meet Tough Challenges

Larry Berglan bursts through the Putnam City line, pulling most of it with him.

Quentin Remy cuts down field for a substantial gain against Duncan assisted by blocker James Moore, number 64.

Running around right end is Quentin Remy in the last game of the season against Tulsa Hale. Bob Prickett, number 74, and Bob Clark, number 81, are leading the way.

Tigers Ranked Sixth in Class AA

The Tigers really aren't as mixed up as they look. They are demonstrating different formations and plays in an assembly given to increase knowledge of football maneuvers.

Closing in on the Ada backfield are seemingly the entire Tiger team but realistically only Lain Adkins, David Behrman, Randy Glasscock, Gordon Will, and Larry Berglan.

Three against one. With the odds favoring them, Rick Kersey, Bob Clark, and Bill Tankersley all try for the rebound. Number 32, Bill Cook, watches to see if his help will be needed.

Senior forward Sandy McGee tries for two, while Rick Kersey waits for the rebound, if need be.

Tiger Cagers Give Pride to Norman

Coach Chet Bryan's cagers closed out another successful season with a 20-4 record, winding up with a 37-34 loss to Midwest City in the semi-finals of the State Class AA Basketball Tourney. The Tigers forged their shiny record with only one returning starter from the 1963 champion squad. All the teams that defeated the Tigers won berths in the state tournament.

Rick Kersey, 6'-7" senior center and the Tiger scoring chief for three years, finished with the lead in every department of final statistics. Scoring 1153 points in his entire career, he broke a school record. He was voted Boomer Conference Player of the Year, and also was awarded All-State honors.

Junior Bill Tankersley was the only other Tiger on the Boomer Conference All-Star first team, but senior Sandy McGee was chosen on the second team.

In spite of interference from a Chickasha cager, 6'7" Rick Kersey goes for a jump shot.

Don Kerby works at one of the many tasks that comes with being basketball manager.

Junior Don Wilcox sinks in another two points while Bill Tankersley and Bill Cook prepare for a rebound.

Baseball Team Bats Through Season

The Tiger baseball team rests between innings of their first home double-header with Anadarko.

Since only a few starters graduated, the Norman High baseball team had high hopes for the 1964 season. After having their first four games canceled because of bad weather, the Tigers trounced Putnam City 8-0 in their opener. Delmar Dean pitched this two-hit game. Coach Jim Park's third year at the helm of the team was highlighted by much spirit and enthusiasm. A fine pitching staff, led by Delmar Dean, Greg Akard, Glen Miller, and sophomore Steve Ayers, promised to guide the Tigers on the road to many victories. The majority of the team was made up of juniors and sophomores, so things look bright for next year.

NHS Wrestling

The 1964 Wrestling team has given Norman High students another reason to be proud of our school. Led by Coach Bert Corr, the team won nine out of ten dual meets, and went on to win two trophies, 31 medals, and one state championship. The team had three fourth place winners at the State Tournament which were

'64 Track-Terrific

A new spirit and enthusiasm has followed the Norman thinclads on their journey through the 1964 season. The Tiger trackmen, coached by Bob Williams, proudly represented Norman at meets all over the state and one at Fort Worth where almost all the teams in the Southwest participated. The third annual Norman Invitational had the longest list of entrants ever, 38 in all. Also, the track team participated in many dual and triangular meets. With much speed and skill going for them, the Tigers were a definite threat for top State honors.

Quentin Remy receives one of the many ribbons he has earned this year by running his specialty, the hurdles.

Helping with these responsibilities of leadership was Linda Carole Williams, vice-president.

On Bill Cook, president, rested the responsibilities of the Senior Class.

You, the Senior Class of 1964, are at the end of a very important part of your lives, but in reality it is only the beginning. You are leaving behind you the Senior Class Play, the senior assemblies, the organizations you participated in, the offices and honors you have held throughout the year, the beautiful Junior-Senior Prom, and the exciting Graduation Exercises. You are taking with you cherished memories of these events and accomplishments to help you in your new beginning.

Leading you in the beginning of your years at NHS and leading you in your ending year was your President, Bill Cook. Holding the two offices under Bill were Linda Carole Williams, vice-president, and Maria Kay Gill, secretary-treasurer. They were very capable officers, performing their duties well. They set a fine standard for the Senior Class officers of the future.

Working with the Senior Class Officers were sponsors: Mrs. Viola Smith, Mr. Hershell R. Morris, Mrs. Nadine Wiest, Mr. Starlin Powell, and Miss Nadine Runyan.

The Secretary-Treasurer, Maria Kay Gill, helping with her share of responsibilities, too.

You, the Junior Class, have acquired knowledge and experience this year, that will aid you, not only during your Senior year, but also later in life. You participated in all the coronation and in the All-School Musical. You worked hard on money-raising projects in order to have a beautiful Prom, and beautiful it was. You are looking forward to making your Senior year one full of perpetual memories to each person in your class.

SOPHOMORES

You, the Sophomore Class of 1964, have shown enthusiasm in keeping with the spirit and tradition of Norman High School. Your loyalty to NHS and determination to do your best has been shown in and out of classes. With these qualities, you may look forward to the next two years with eagerness. But the past year, filled with unforgettable memories, is one to treasure now.

Sophomore sponsors, Mrs. Evadine Kerr, Miss Hope Wood, Mrs. Alice Robinson, Mrs. Ann Braithwaite, and Mrs. Patricia Johnson, donated much time and hard work to the Sophomore class.

DEBORAH LOUISE REID
August 29, 1948 — December 28, 1963

A high-contrast black and white photograph showing the silhouettes of two graduates standing in a doorway. They are wearing caps and gowns, facing away from the camera towards a bright light source. The scene is framed by dark, heavy door frames on either side. The floor is visible at the bottom, reflecting some light.

A door marked "Nevermore..."

Susan,

Well Babe, 7 yrs. Together and we finally made it.
I'll never forget how many times of tears and smiles.
Luck to you forever more.
May God Bless you
Always. 7 years Forever
& Always

"Alber"
(Gang)

Susan,
you have meant a lot to me all these years. You are a wonderful person.
Good luck; God bless
you. May you have all the happiness in the world. Love ya,
Linda Pannell

Susan,
I have certainly enjoyed working with you this semester. I hope that everything works out for you!
Good luck in the future,
and may you find and get exactly what you want out of life.

Sincerely,
Mariellen Jones
(Miss Jones)
